TWO CO-EDS MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING

Hay Fever Faster

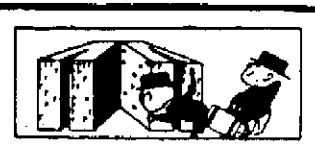

George McKenna, 44 (above) Detroit garage man, staged a 40-day fast to try to cure himself of hay fever. His weight fell from 150 to 90 pounds during the process.

Woodstock.

Woodstock, April 28.—There will be a meeting of the Woodstock Home Bureau Unit on Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Bradley. The meeting will be for the purpose of conducting a living room conference, and to plan next season's program.

INCREASED NUMBER OF FIRES

CHURCH OATH

As an American ponders on this matter, the utterance of Bishop Sasse of Thuringia, in administering the Hitler oath to several hundred pastors at Weimar, may have a deeper meaning than appears on the surface. Did he mean it literally, or was there deep religious poetry in his mind when he said: "I solemnly guarantee the idea that we pastors are animated by the same spirit that the all other Germans still possess. He who would know what loyalty means here and for all eternity in heaven and on earth need not

COLLEGE WAR GAMES

Well, it seems to have been a good job. Apparently we still need armies and navies; but still more we need to preserve a living sense of what war means in terms of human life and civilization. The play-soldiers in this case must have been largely the sons of the men who fought the last war. Memories of terror and struggle and death and privation and grief and barbarism soften, and even grow romantic, with lapse of time. Every new generation needs to be reminded of the bitter facts.

If Germany insists on believing that one million knows more than 70,000,000 Germans, that's that is not?

The Story So Far: Judith Goodloe marries self-made Reuben Oliver for his money, only to discover he is bankrupt. Twins are born. Then red-headed Cissy Rogers, who loves Reuben and is out to get him, finds a job for him in a lumber camp managed by Gary Brent—the man Judith loves. After a quarrel with James Reuben, Cissy goes home stronger, less eager to please her. Gary insists that Judith get a divorce, telling her that Reuben wants to marry Cissy.

Air Defense Essay and "Test Pilot" Cases Settled as May Calendar of Court Is Called

Spencer Tracy, Clark Gable, Lionel Barrymore in "Test Pilot"

What Do You Think of the Airplane As A Means of National Defense?

Write your answer to that question and you may be the winner of a round trip to California where you'll meet Clark Gable and other famous movie stars, or you may be the recipient of a $250 custom suit radio.

The Broadway Theatre is conducting a local essay contest dealing with the important question of air defense. The movie depicts the stirring lives of men in the air and the part played by the pilot in advancing the science of aviation.

Here's all you have to do to qualify for one of the big prizes: Write an essay of from 200 to 500 words on what you think of the airplane as a national defense. Everyone should have something to say on this important question. And, who knows, your opinion may be selected for one of the prizes.

The outstanding essay in the local competition will be forwarded to New York, and judged against entries from other parts of the nation. From this pick of the country, judges, including Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, members of the National Aeronautics Association and other famous names in aviation, will select those to receive the prizes.

Your answer must be in the Broadway Theatre by noon Saturday. You can mail or deliver it in person.

The winning entry will be judged on the basis of most original and nearest essay judges in the local competition will be Harry C. LaMoine, president of the Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce, and R. Giersch, manager of the Radio Theatre in Kingston.

Don't waste any time in getting your essay in. Get together with your friends and have each one submit an essay. The name of writer of the essay that will be entered in the national competition will be published in The Freeman. The closing of the contest, the decision of the judges will be held.

Seven cases appearing on the May calendar of the Supreme Court this term which will be presented over by Justice Harry T. S. Smith, including the case of the Simpson. Two cases on the calendar were referred and there were two additions to the calendar. No case was announced as ready on the part of both plaintiff and defendant for trial Monday afternoon, the opening day of court.

The day calendar will be made up Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Jurors will report for duty Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Settlement of an action brought by Edwin T. Smith, as limited guardian of the goods, etc., of Mrs. A. Smith against William J. Smith, was announced. It was a preference action. (Leon B. Murphy for plaintiff, and Andrew J. Cook for the defendant.)

Other cases settled were William J. Smith against Joseph J. Smith, for breach of contract. (Abram J. Halpin and A. C. Cook for plaintiff and Jay L. Reinhold and Joseph Campbell for defendant.)

Another case settled was Aaron Beckerman against Helen J. Beckerman, for breach of contract. (Joseph Beckerman for plaintiff and Aaron Beckerman for defendant.)

And a third case settled against the Kingston Community Hotel Corporation, action for personal injuries. (Andrew J. Cook for plaintiff and Joseph Beckerman for defendant.)

Letty Every against Frederick C. Winter, a negligence action for property damage. (William J. Smith and Joseph Beckerman for plaintiff and Frederick C. Winter for defendant.)

Jennie Acute against George J. Foster, action for personal injuries. (Andrew J. Cook for plaintiff and Joseph Beckerman for defendant.)

Raymond L. Craft against Joseph Zwisch, negligence.

Parent-Teacher Association

Teacher Association was held in Mrs. Norton's room of the Woodstock school on Tuesday. The president, Mrs. George Layman, reported for the Apple Blossom Festival committee that plans are being made for an exhibition of school art, home art and hobbies of the Woodstock children. Mrs. Stanley Quick was appointed to supervise the school art. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Emmet Edwards, Mrs. Fred Toms and the Rev. A.

Walter Baker.

The problem of poison ivy, which covers a great deal of the school yard was again brought up, as it has been in previous years. As yet the poison ivy has never been destroyed and each year seriously affects a number of the children. The election of officers was postponed until another meeting. Mrs. Layman and the Rev. Harvey Todd will serve as a committee to nominate new officers to replace the present ones who are resigning.

The seven principal virtues in medieval Christian ethics were purity, obedience, benevolence, faith, hope, love and humility.

Cannot Be Present.

The Rev. W. R. Peckham, the newly appointed pastor of Clinton Avenue M. E. Church cannot be present Thursday evening to conduct the mid-week prayer service.

The Rev. Howard D. McGrath, the former pastor, has kindly consented to lead the service in the absence of Mr. Peckham.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By Robin Coom

HOLLYWOOD—Donald Crisp, the character actor, was shaking his head sadly the other day. "I heard them singing 'Annie Laurie' last night," he shuddered. "It was terrible."

"But it set some of us talking about music and songs," he went on, "and we hit on a counter-suggestion for the swingers. Those songs George M. Cohan was writing 25 years ago. Yes, they're right in the modern tempo. Remember 'H-A-R-R-I-G-A-N' and 'I Am the Man Who Owns Broadway' and 'Little Johnny Jones'? Those songs are as much in the spirit of today as tunes they're turning out now — and swingable, too."

Knitkin Gets 'Em

On the set of "Little Miss Broadway" little Miss Patricia (Honey Chile) Wilder was swinging an industrious pair of needles. Knitting needles. And with the yarn she wove in a bit of advice.

"Take up knittin' if you want yourself a fella, girl—that's what Ah say. There's somethin' about knittin' that gets 'em every time. Most young fellas can't get past the old-fashioned idea that a woman's place is home—and there's somethin' awful homey—lookin' about knittin'."

Honey Chile never wants for dates, knittin' or no knittin'. But on the set of "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," where the next knitter was encountered, Gale Page didn't know about that. "I'm knittin' this sweater for my sister—the first I've done—and I'm doing it to keep from smoking—something to do with my hands," she said.

Fritz Feld is getting more and more of the character comedy assignments that have boosted his popularity ever since "I Met Him in Paris." It may be just a coincidence, but between pictures Fritz doesn't run off to Palm Springs or Malibu. He's in the Paramount commissary for lunch every day, at a table near the entrance where executives and directors must pass. Which might be a tip for actors who wonder why they don't get farther.

Lonesome Town

Hollywood's a lonesome place, says Jeffrey Lynn ("Cowboy from Brooklyn" and "When Were You Born?" via the stage). And he lists all the friends he has made in this supposedly palsy-walsy town in the first three months on four fingers and two thumbs: a script girl, Carl Millikan, ex-governor's son who was a Bates College (Maine) classmate; Jean Benedek, actress; and Frank Beckwith, dialogue director; a swimming companion at Hollywood Athletic club whose name he doesn't know; a publicity man who some times sends items back to the home town paper in Worcester, Mass. ...

At The Theatres

PREVIEWED

Broadway: "Romance in the Dark". Another story of a girl singer who rises to fame in the opera is tunefully displayed at the Broadway with Gladys Swarthout of the Metropolitan in the starring role. Although Miss Swarthout is no great shakes as an actress her beauty and her glorious voice make up for her dramatic sterility and she is fortunate in having John Barrymore in a featured role to add comedy and skill to an otherwise drab presentation. John Barrymore is also in the cast of this Paramount picture. Lovers of good music will enjoy "Romance in the Dark" and everyone will enjoy Mr. Barrymore's excellent acting.

Kingston: "Judge Hardy's Children" and "Heart of Arizona". A cross section of American child life and a strapping tale of the great outdoors make up the usual double feature bill at the Kingston, the first with Lewis Stone and Mackay Rooney; the second with William Boyd.

Orpheum: "A Slight Case of Murder". One of the funniest of the current comedy releases is this howling murder tale that is done with such frivolity that the laughs come at a dime a dozen. The plot concerns a retired racketeer who finds lean pickings after the death of prohibition. He goes to his Saratoga estate to play the ponies and finds four murdered men in the bedroom. From then on the excitement begins and maintains itself all the way to a melodramatic finish. Edward G. Robinson is starred and supported by Edna May Oliver, Florence Rice and Allen Jenkins.

Tomorrow

Broadway: Same.

Kingston: "Her Jungle Love." What might be termed an imaginative "whooper" comes to the Kingston in all the barbaric splendor of Hollywood jungle scenes plus one of the most exciting plots ever devised by a scenario writer. This is the story of a wild jungle princess who learns the meaning of love from an adventurous wild man who is trapped and captured and nearly tossed to the crocodiles by her bloodthirsty warriors. Filmed in Technicolor and staged expensively, "Her Jungle Love" is sheer make believe which is also grand entertainment for young and old alike. It moves with rapid gusto through a maze of desperate happenings and brings you out unscathed after 80 minutes of enjoyment. Dorothy Lamour is excellent in the starring role and she sings several songs engagingly. Others in the case are Lynn Overman and Ray Milland. Orpheum: "High Flyers" and "Call of the Rockies." A comedy and a western film complete the double features at the downtown theatre, the first a slapstick affair with the famous team of Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, the second an action picture of the west with Charles Starrett riding and singing his way to success.

SCENE OF PENNSYLVANIA MINE EXPLOSION

This aerial view of the St. Clair Coal Company's mine near Pottsville, Pa., shows the general scene where an explosion and fire, deep in anthracite workings, killed at least seven men and injured 11 others, ten seriously. Two of the 20 men on the level at the time of the blast managed to get an exit. They were uninjured and spread the alarm.

Members of the Lightning Protection Association of New York state found from a survey of its members that the trend is toward shorter and less decorative lightning rods than the flamboyant type in vogue at the turn of the century. No more glass balls, cows or horses atop the rods, they run now from ten to twenty-four inches.

Oil heat at surprisingly low cost wherever this "skintlin" burner is installed

That's what home owners say about the Model P Petro & Nokoi Oil Burner. For no other burner has "Tubular Atomization" that produces lazy, quiet, more efficient soft flame combustion, resulting in greater heat release in the burning of the fuel.

Built for small home heating plants, this Petro & Nokoi knows just how to squeeze every drop of fuel oil heat-dry. It's a "chaser" that trims fuel oil bills.

See it. Priced today at bedrock, even though costs are rising. Install now, start paying next fall.

Gonzalez Sentence Upheld by Court

Albany, April 28 (Special).—The Appellate Division has unanimously affirmed judgments of conviction against Prudentio Gonzalez, known as Red Rubio, and Jose Gonzalez, known as Joe Gonzalez, who were convicted in Ulster county court on charges of robbery, first degree, about two years ago.

The robbery for which Prudentio was sentenced to a term of 15 years to 25 years at hard labor in Clinton State Prison, and Jose was given a sentence of from 10 to 15 years, took place at a Spanish road camp in Kerhonkson on October 12, 1931.

At that time, according to the record, the Kerhonkson commissary and boarding house was being operated for road employees, operator of which alleged that in the early morning five men entered his place and lined up the men who were just getting around for the day's work. Those on the first floor were lined up against the wall and as the other men came down they were also lined up and robbed. It was charged that the men were relieved of about $1,500 in cash by the robbers, who flashed guns and demanded money. One of the bandits who wore a stocking over his face with eye holes, mounted the table in dramatic fashion, and gave orders to the other bandits.

On trial the Gonzalez's gave as a defense an alibi, alleging they were elsewhere on the day of the robbery.

In a memorandum handed down by the Appellate Division in connection with its present decision, the court says:

"A careful examination of the evidence shows that a robbery was committed in a road camp by five men of whom four at least were armed and four of whom to some degree were masked. They were not apprehended for more than four years afterwards and the workers in the camp, 40 to 45 in number, who were robbed, had scattered to the four corners of the earth. Three of them were at the trial and three of them positively identified one of the defendants and one of them positively identified the other.

"The defendants testified in their own defense and one of the defendants produced some evidence that he was in Hartford, Conn., the next day after the robbery and that he was at his home in Paterson, N. J., the night of the robbery. The woman with whom he was living with testified to this and some of the boarders in the house where he lived, with whom he was playing cards on the night of the robbery.

"A careful examination of all of the evidence in the case coupled with the fact that the principal witnesses were members of the road gang at the time of the robbery and were unknown to the jury and that the jury heard the witnesses and judged their credibility and found the defendants guilty leads us to the conclusion that the judgment of conviction appealed from and the order should be affirmed.

"Such errors, if any, as occurred during the course of the trial were immaterial and may be disregarded.

"Judgment of conviction and order denying motion for new trial were unanimously affirmed."

Daisy Pupils Laud Woodstock Librarian

Woodstock, April 28.—Further evidence of the appreciation felt by the community for the work of the Woodstock library was given last week. A letter and the gift of a flowering plant and a colored chalk drawing was received from the pupils of the Daisy school, addressed to the

Librarian, Mrs. Alice Putnam Thompson

Signed by 23 pupils, mounted and decorated, the letter reads: "To Mrs. Thompson, a helpful friend. We, the Daisy School pupils, wish to show our appreciation to you for being so helpful in finding books we have to read in connection with our school work." Thrifty new titles, adult and juvenile, fiction and non-fiction, have been added to the catalog during the month of April. It is an inviting list, including such best sellers as "Action at Aquila"; "R. F. D."; "Our Town"; the Wilder drama which is creating a sensation in New York; and "Out of Africa", a veritable gem of a book. Especial interest also attaches to the Schoonmaker "History of Kingston", copies of which are few and hard to find. This was picked up from a perhaps unsuspecting nearby second-hand dealer and will be counted among the treasures of the library.

The complete list of April acquisitions is as follows: Adult fiction: Mann, Joseph in Egypt; Paul, "Concert Pitch"; Rawlings, "The Yearling"; Chase, "Dawn in Lyonesse"; Dunsmuir, "The Feeder"; Grant, "The Wings of the Phoenix"; Gunnarsson, "Ship in the Sky"; Nathan, "Winter in April"; Adult non-fiction: Wilson, "Azel's Castle"; Smart, "R. F. D."; Dinesen, "Out of Africa"; Taylor, "Of Men and Music"; Anthony, "Field Book of North American Mammals"; Mathews, "Field Book of Wild Birds and Their Music"; Schoonmaker, "History of Kingston"; Hirstein, "Evolution of Physics"; Maugham, "The Summing Up"; MacLoish, "Land of the Free"; Hoover, "Persons in Hiding"; Wilder, "Our Town"; Havel, "Fashion is Splendid"; Zweig, "Conqueror of the Seas"; Chase, "Tyranny of Words"; Rohde, "Garden of Herbs"; Dorrance, "Fragrance in the Garden"; Juvenile: Tolkien, "The Hobbit"; Gens, "Once Upon a Time in Egypt"; Farjeon, "Martin Pippin in the Daisy Field"; Stone, "Edgar," the 7:58".

Old Journal and Freeman Is Found By Rural Reader

Shokan, April 4.—The same sheet is approximately the same width of the present day Freeman, though about three inches longer. The top and left-hand margins are fully one and one-half inches wide while the column width is two and one-half inches. The Weekly appears to have been got out primarily for the benefit of readers in the country and other cities; its rural news content is very large and the whole paper compares favorably with the daily of that period.

The entire front page of the old weekly is given over to county news, with the exception of about half a column devoted to happenings in the neighboring counties of Greene and Delaware. The correspondence from the several villages makes highly interesting reading, and doubtless many among the vast Freeman family of today will find familiar names—including possibly their own—in the excerpts which are briefly presented herewith:

St. Rem's—A lively coon hunt took place a few nights ago, by a party of young men, two of them being experts at the business from the "hook."... Rifton—The Ladies Aid Society of the Reformed Church of Dashville will hold a social at the house of William Smith, near Rifton, on October 27. Hurley—The ladies of the Reformed Church will hold a social at A. S. Houghtaling's, on the 22nd. Kripplush—The Accord people have evinced their appreciation of the services of Prof. Clarence T. France of Kripplush by purchasing a handsome organ for the school in the first-named village. The Sunnysides went to Ellenville Saturday to play a game of baseball with a club in that village. Solomon Smith has succeeded Josiah Wood as sexton. Kripplush has the best temperance organization in Ulster County. It was organized October 27, 1882, by Daniel C. Schoonmaker, John Wood and other Stone Ridge residents. The first president was Theodore Wilkoff. The present secretary is the Union, which now numbers 200 persons. Is Elmer Wilkoff. Stone Ridge—The Rev. Alfred Mortimer of Staten Island, who was the guest of Messrs. Delafeld and Morson last week, preached in St. Peter's P. E. Church. Pine Hill—Charles Earle has sold out to S. Keator of Margaretville. Walter Coons has finished a fine arched bridge at New Kingston. E. Kelly's house is completed. The old schoolhouse is a disgrace. Let the people rise up and build. The old house of W. Burhans has been changed into a fine residence. Aaron Elling did the carpenter work.

Shokan—The Misses Mary and Annie Buley are guests at Mrs. Wm. P. Castle's. The Rev. Mr. McGibbon of the Dutch Church is laboring a Bible class, members of which walk over four miles to attend. Mrs. Snyder Lockwood has gone on a visit to Maryland. Mrs. John Rainey has been in New York. Some Shokan Democrats say that, owing to the hard times under Grover Cleveland, they will never vote another Democrat. Charles H. Wood, who has shipped, from his own farm, 400 barrels of apples, worth $1.10 loaded on the cars. Monday night, October 26, an entertainment will be given by the "Juvenile Temple," a society of boys and girls trained by Miss Inez Harlow.

West Shokan—N. D. Sheldon is teaching the local school. Hannah and Eva Eckert, of Frank VanKleeck will teach the Bushkill school this winter. Mrs. Isaac Bolce is living dangerously from the typhoid. Hardenbergh—Herman Murwin has raised nearly 600 bushels of potatoes. Lauren Hulber teaches in district No. 3 and J. W. Van Steenburg in the Turnwood district. It will be either school fails. Mr. Kelly has received news of the death of her sister in the west. The new lattice bridge at Turnwood is being used but is not yet shingled. S. VanCleave and wife of Poughkeepsie, who purchased the Mead property of 1,000 acres, are stopping with S. Bulkeley at Balsam Lake.

Saugerties Items, in part, are: The race opened at the driving park Monday. Not much money was invested in pools. The judges were Derrick W. Sparling, Kingston; Edward Sturges, Madeline, and P. A. Hommel. E. P. Lewis of Catskill was timer, and J. C. Davis, scorer. Pool selling was good the second day. Ally McDonald was one of the expert drivers. Mrs. James Merchant is seriously ill. The Calliopean Club, under the direction of Ellis Thompson, will give a concert at Maxwell Hall Thursday evening. E. Seaman is now a clerk at F. T. Russell's. The ferryboat Air Line has been overhauled and is ready for service. H. H. Myer, of Bridgeville, is visiting in Saugerties. Elizabeth C. Snyder, returned from a trip to Brooklyn. The Terwilliger for member of assembly gives entire satisfaction. Miss Lizzie Decker played the organ in the M. E. Church Sunday in the absence of Miss Mary Wood. Coincidence—Miss Mary Wood, of Kingston, is visiting friends here. Sarah E. Osterhout has returned from a trip to New York. The finest cupola in Metacahon is on the barn of Andrew B. Krom. It was built by Peter B. Krom and his son, Josiah. Pine Bush—Augustus Deyo has his large crop of grapes all cut and sold. William Atkins has traded his home for a fine six-year old colt. The Pine Bush flat is now in excellent condition for running or trotting horses.

From Rosendale comes news of a lecture in All Saints P. E. Church on the subject of "Christian Theism, as Opposed to Agnosticism," by the Rev. Edward Ransford, who showed how evolution could be held by a Christian without running contrary to Scripture. The Rev. Mr. Ransford, who is missionary in charge here, will resume his Episcopal services in the Whiteport hall to night. Springtown—M. DuBois and wife of Butterville have been visiting David Atkins in Sullivan county. Mrs. Eliza E. Elting's house and tra DuBois' barn are well under way. Napanoch—George Young, Republican nominee for sheriff, is just the man for that office. A wounded veteran, he is a man of few words and deep foresight. Woodstock—Dr. J. M. Griffin of West Hurley is caring for Dr. L. B. Smith's patients. Dr. Smith's mother is very ill. C. H. Guler and William Short made a trip to the Southern Ulster fruit region. They visited the farm of J. Thomas of Clintondale who will ship about 20 tons of grapes. They also stopped at the 100-acre farm at Plattekill of Miss Mary Gregory, which is managed by Lewis Sicker, formerly of South Woodstock.

The Flatbush correspondent: Peter Felon of the Lake House, Pine Bush, has moved to Kingston. A church social at Andrew Brink's on the 27th. The Rev. A. A. Zabriskie preached an interesting sermon last Sunday. Marlborough items take up a whole column of the front page: The 24th annual convention of the county Sunday School association took place Tuesday and Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church. Officers of the association were D. B. Abbey, president; William Torrence, John W. Bingham and John R. Hunt, vice presidents; William Smith, secretary, and George B. Merritt, treasurer. Nelson Decker figured in a runaway Saturday. He had obtained a horse of E. E. Beran to go to Newburgh and the horse, becoming frightened, headed for the Farmers' Hotel where it ran into the old hickory pole. The village is still in need of sidewalks and a fire engine. The Misses Minnie and Charlotte Barnes have been visiting friends in Kingston. George Milden's team ran away. They went on a dead run, passing everything and colliding with Thomas T. Buckley's Oscar Little damage to the main street Phillips of north Main street shipped several baskets of peaches last week for which he received $14 a basket. W. H. Greiner, Stillwell & Smith's star salesman, has gone on a two months' trip through Pennsylvania.

Lots of going-ons in old Marlborough. The reporter continues: N. J. Caniff and wife are in New Jersey. J. C. Dobbs is convalescent. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Flemming, of Croton, are raising their son-in-law, Morris Butler. Mrs. Mosher and daughter of Lake Hill are visiting Dr. Mosher. P. Schryver of Port Ewen, and J. Bates of St. Remy, made a fraternal visit to the Good Templars of this town. Tuesday the bells pealed forth Tuesday's nuptials being those of Miss Minnie Kniss, daughter of Dowling Kniss, and Charlotte Kniss, and Edwin and Charlotte of William D. Barnes.

of Middle Hope. The Rev. C. E. Brown performed the ceremony. C. H. Woodley tied an old shoe to the bridal carriage as it passed through the village. Armour Lodge Tuesday evening. The steamer Gypsy brought the party down and a midnight supper was enjoyed at the Farmer's Hotel. The propeller Carrie A. Wood, of Newburgh, was chartered by Thomas T. Buckley and family for a private excursion to West Point. Mrs. J. P. Covert is ill at her home.

Dutchess county pot-hunters, or men who shoot and trap to sell, regardless of season, and in defiance of law, long ago cleaned out the quail and partridges in southern Ulster. So, our sportsmen now go in parties to the wilds of Sullivan for their hunting. A week ago a band of nine Nimrod, among them being C. J. DePuy, Henry C. Mackey, L. S. Patten, H. H. Hallock and William H. Miller, went to Sullivan where they obtained a quail named Miller. The quail was nearly killed by a gunner's shot. The local men found Miller in a faint and the hear almost dead, following a terrible fight. Bruin, in huguenot the man, had injured the latter's internal organs. It was a close call. The sportsmen killed two deer together with a large amount of other game, and caught many fish. The boys bragged over Jerry Miller very highly as a guide.

(J. Hall Lawrence is now in charge of the Freeman branch office at Marlborough.—Ed.) Business notices from southern Ulster villages are as follows: After November 1, there will be a snowplow of stable manure at Hasbrouck's dock at Highland. Call and examine W. A. Goehring's full line of stoves at Milton. The Milden Brothers have established a stage line in connection with their livery. James O. Mackey's stage meets all West shore calls and the boats. Under special prices in ice cream and large picnics, societies and lodges. Get printing estimates at The Freeman branch. Six steam job presses running every day. Export composers; no hotching. No concern gets up a finer auction bill than The Freeman. The Century Magazine mentions the studio of George Innes, Sr., who has an old barn in an apple orchard at Milton. Milton is also made of William H. Low, who has an old tool house at Milton for his studio and of E. L. Henry and wife, artists at Ellenville. At Marlborough there are several artists, residing there all the year round, notably so "Painter L. E. Wilmoth." At Milton for 15 years or more scores of artists have spent the summer months in the quiet homes of the Quakers, notably so with the Hallocks. Mrs. Mary Hallock Foote, a noted sketcher and magazine writer, is a Hallock. The sketch of the famous cider mill—the Hallocks, by the way, make an excellent brand of elder champagne—appeared in Scribner's, now The Century, about four years ago. The Hallocks, too, were the first to grow the famous Hudson River Antwerp, at which they made a fortune.

In the sixth and last column of the first page of our 52-year old Journal and Weekly Freeman appears an eulogy of Judge Theodore Rosendale Westbrock, distinguished Kingston lawyer who had passed away, October 6, while in attendance on the full session of the Circuit Court at Troy. The Albany Law Journal, leading publication of its class in the United States, spoke of the deceased judge in part, as follows: "He was one of the brightest men who have adorned our bench. Very few have done so much hard work as he, and on the whole so satisfactorily. Very few have been called on to adjudicate so many novel and difficult questions growing out of modern business. His very worst fault, it seems to us, was his indifference to public opinion. Conscious of rectitude, he was too regardless of appearances. He was also apt to take too much work. Personally, he was a most agreeable companion and a good friend. His private life was of shining purity; his speech and habits were unimpeachable; his domestic relations were the most loyal and devoted; he was of simple and earnest religious faith. He had the courage to espouse and the constancy to stand by the rather unpopular 'temperance cause.' We admire the uncompromising silence with which he bore the late aspersions against him, and the unruffled dignity with which he kept on in his important duties. He has gone to the Supreme Court, not of law, but of equity, where his faults will be leniently judged, and his remarkable virtues will shine like the morning star."

ROSENDALE. Rosendale, April 27.—There will be a card party in Firemen's Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. This affair is being given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Rosendale Fire Department. There will be a meeting of the ladies of the several organizations of the town held in Firemen's Hall in Rosendale. The purpose of the meeting is to make apple blossoms to trim the hall for the night of May 7. John Mooney of Maple Hill called a meeting on May 17 of all men interested in playing baseball in the town during the summer. Many of the boys who were present brought word that several others were interested but found it impossible to attend. The first rehearsal will be on Sunday afternoon on the field in Maple Hill. The following were in attendance at the meeting: John Duffy, Jr., Melvin Fein, John Mooney, John Regan, John Connelly, Lewis Auchmoody and Joseph Hill.

Licenses Revoked And Suspended

Charles A. Harnett, commissioner of motor vehicles, announced today the following revocations and suspensions of operators' licenses in Ulster county:

Marcellus D. Saunders of 3 Yankee Place, Ellenville, license revoked for leaving the scene of an accident without reporting. The license of Philip Noto of Marlborough, was suspended for 30 days for reckless driving. The licenses of Fomer Woodward of 240 Washington avenue and John E. Nagle of 68 Pine street were suspended for an indefinite period for cancellation of insurance policy. Remember: Kingston Forum Mon. May 2, 8 p.m., Temple Emanuel. Prof. Harry Overstreet speaks, "The Art of Living."—Adv.

Captain Roosa Is New Deal Officials Honored for Long Service in Masonry

Captain Zach Roosa of 9 Grove street was honored by Newburgh Lodge, No. 303, F. & A. M., Wednesday night, when his long service in Masonry was recognized in an appropriate service. Captain Roosa was awarded a gold medal testifying to 50 years of service as a member of the Masonic order and in addition there was attached a palm branch attesting to additional service of ten years or more.

Captain Roosa was raised in London Lodge No. 343, but later demitted to Newburgh Lodge and although he has resided at No. 9 Grove street, Kingston, for some 16 years past, he has continued to hold his membership in the Newburgh Lodge.

Retired for some years, Captain Roosa was for many years connected with the Central Hudson Steamboat Co. Among Central Hudson boats of which he was captain were the Martin, the Jacob H. Tremper and the Homer Ramsdell. He also served the line for some time as freight agent at Albany, Troy and Kingston.

The captain is a native of the town of Marbletown.

Vandeville at UPA Food Show

The featured act on the vaudeville program for tonight, and the next two days of the Ulster Provisioners Association food show at the municipal auditorium will be the vaudeville act of John H. Vandeville.

Besides the caricatures of prominent people, John H. Vandeville will sketch the new miniature automobile racing track at the village of Woodstock.

The full program: Master of Ceremonies, Alan Reno, Broadway playboy, with a sparkling line of chatter and novel instrumental specialties.

Seamus & Kaye, international wonderworkers of mystery and mirth.

Herb Loe, feature artist of the Robert Ripley "Believe It or Not" broadcast program, in a humorous novelty offering.

John H. Vandeville, caricatures.

Chancellor Schuchting of Austria will now be tried for his life on the charge of patriotism.

Stocks Turned Up Wednesday

The situation faced by private utility companies who are under the shadow of TVA competition was the subject of news dispatches yesterday as it was revealed that within the next ten days there will probably be a statement giving an idea just what the privately owned companies may expect in the way of a purchase price for their properties. Director Lillenthal of the TVA told President Roosevelt yesterday that progress had been made in conference between the TVA and officials of private systems regarding purchases of facilities in the TVA area. Among other things it is stated that negotiations for sale of Memphis power and light may come to a head next week.

Despite the generally unprofitable business experienced during the first three months of this year by the automobile industry as a whole General Motors operated in the black. Earnings for the quarter were $8,231,017, or 11 cents a share. The sharp drop in earnings is emphasized, however, by the statement that in the first quarter of last year the company earned $14,814,166, or 39 cents a share.

Electric output for week ending April 23 showed little change from the previous week, but was 10.8 per cent under the same week in 1932. Carolan's showed a slight decline from the previous week.

Price of heavy melting steel scrap at Pittsburgh dropped to $11.10 to $12 a ton, or 50 cents. After three days decline stocks turned upward yesterday and although closing under the gain showed the first hour, finished day with a good advance. Industrial stocks showed a gain for the day of 1.31 points, to 115.25 in the Dow-Jones averages and utilities had a slight gain, closing at 18.15. Rails registered a loss of 0.10 point, closing at 21.75.

Trading was quiet, however, generally were firm. Wheat closed lower, but otherwise commodities were steady.

President Dreyfus of Celanese Corp. estimated that company would have net income of $190,000 to $150,000 for the first quarter.

Portions of the major telegraph companies for a 15 per cent increase in domestic rates were denied by the Federal Communications Commission, by a vote of 14 to 1.

Senator Burke, Democrat, Nebraska, appealed to employers, labor and the general public for support to remedy "glaring defects" of the Wagner Labor Relations Act and its administration.

Says that they are a "potent cause of the depression which has engulfed the country."

New York, April 25 (AP)—Buying incentives apparently were lacking in today's stock market and leading issues yielded fractions to 2 or more points.

Dealings were even slower than in yesterday's dragging session and, around noon, the ticker tape frequently was at a standstill. Some slight improvement at the opening soon faded. Steels, motors and an assortment of specialties gave ground easily. Most rails confined declines to minor fractions.

Conspicuous on the retreat were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown, Chrysler, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Can, General Electric, du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Union Carbide, Johns-Manville, I. L. Case, Boeing, N. J. Texas Corp., U. S. Rubber and Consolidated Edison.

Western Union leaned backward following action of the federal communications commission in disapproving an increase in telegraph rates. Westinghouse also dipped on the cut in the dividend rate and drop of 62 per cent in profits for the first three months. General Motors was down only a shade after disclosing a sizable decline in net for the initial quarter.

Traders seemed willing to wait for concrete results of the administration's efforts to stimulate recovery through a revival of business cooperation.

Bonds and commodities were uneven.

Calls Wage-Hour Bill Most Fair

Washington, April 25 (AP).—Chairman Norton (D-N.J.), of the House labor committee, declared today that the revamped wages and hours bill was "the most fair and equitable" one her committee could draft.

Mrs. Norton said a recent WPA survey showed the lowest annual wage in this country was paid "not in the south, but in Wichita, Kas.," where she said the figure was $810.

Mrs. Norton made the declaration in urging the House rules committee, which bottled up the original wage-hour bill for months last year, to give the revised measure a legislative green light.

Chairman O'Connor (D-N.Y.) of the rules committee, told news-men no decision would be made until tomorrow on Mrs. Norton's request that the bill be given preferential status on the House calendar.

Making her first personal appearance before the rules committee, Mrs. Norton said her committee felt the House should be accorded an opportunity to vote the revised bill "up or down."

Mrs. Norton said she was aware that Representative Ramspeck (D-Ga.), ranking majority member of her committee, believed the new bill to be unconstitutional because of its inflexibility, but declared she could not agree with him.

Escapes With Cut Over Eye When Car Overtakes

Vance C. Leware of 420 Foxball avenue was treated at the Kingston Hospital for a cut over the eye, sustained when his car left the pavement on the Plank road and turned over. His Oldsmobile, which was badly damaged, was towed in by the Rhymer wrecker.

Arrested at Saugerties by Sergeant Cunningham and Trooper Keefe on a charge of reckless driving, Yvan Morin of Montreal, Canada, was committed to the Ulster county jail yesterday in default of bail, to await a hearing before Justice Charles H. Bennett of Saugerties.

Two Ulster Floats For Parade

been under construction for two weeks with Architect Albert E. Milliken directing the work. The float is 25 feet long and 10 feet wide and those in the know describe it as a very fine and artistic piece of work. The float will feature a big apple tree and 10 Ulster county girls in costume. The girls are being selected by the Ulster County Theatre Association.

Major General William N. Haskell will be the grand marshal of the parade, which is scheduled to start from Battery Place at 10:30 a. m. After being reviewed at the World's Fair site the parade will disband at Queen's Boulevard and Grand avenue.

Flemmings Leads Colonial Pinmen—
Figures Favor Ben Toffel

By Joe Kelly

LEADER the 14 high average bowlers in the Colonial League, Ben Toffel, of the New York Yankees, leads the league in pinning with 1,100 pins in 14 games. Toffel's record is 1,100 pins in 14 games, with an average of 78.57. He is followed by Flemmings, who has 1,050 pins in 14 games, with an average of 75.00. The league is made up of 14 teams, with a total of 140 bowlers. The season is still in its early stages, and the standings are subject to change. Toffel's performance has been consistent, and he is expected to continue his lead. Flemmings is also a strong contender, and the race for the top spot is expected to be close. The league is a popular one, and it is expected to continue to grow in popularity in the future.

IN 1922 at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., a stymie—you couldn't lift the ball in those days—ended the golf championship career of Alex Stirling of Atlanta. With a great burst, the Atlanta girl had won three holes in a row to square her semi-final match in the women's national with Mrs. W. A. Gavin at the 18th. Both drove to the green of the 130-yard final hole. Miss Stirling putted to within a foot of the pin but Mrs. Gavin's putt, rimming the cup, stopped on the lip to lay a dead stymie and win the match.

IF ALL MY CUSTOMERS TRIED PHILLIES—I WOULDN'T SELL MANY OTHER CIGARS. THAT'S HOW GOOD IT IS!

Now 5¢

GUARANTEED AMERICA'S FORMER LARGEST-SELLING 10-CENT BRAND

Smoke one PHILLIES - now 5¢ - and you'll know why it has become America's largest-selling cigar

"I DON'T HESITATE A MINUTE"

When a customer asks me "What's your best 5-cent cigar?" I don't hesitate a minute in pushing out the PHILLIES box. I figure that any cigar that was the biggest seller at 10¢ must be the best at 5¢. And I haven't found a man yet who didn't like PHILLIES better than his previous cigar."

Dealer after dealer will tell you

That after a man tries PHILLIES he'll seldom ask for any other cigar. That's why so many dealers recommend PHILLIES to their hardest-to-please customers.

When you next buy a cigar—reach in the box with the big blue PHILLIES band across the lid. Learn why PHILLIES is called "America's most enjoyable cigar."

Will Give Play

With May 13 only two weeks away, the Colony Club is pushing forth with greater effort to make "The Mill of the Gods" a huge success at West Camp hall. The rehearsal three nights a week have caused the cast really to live their parts. In fact, Joseph McCutcheon has acquired a remarkable accent to perfect his part of an Irish tramp. The vivacious part of Patricia Jefferson, the heroine, will be portrayed by Miss Kathryn Connors. Other members of the cast are doing equally well.

Fire Destroys Barn and Granary

In a short time Monday morning the large horse barn and granary on the Philip Van Elten farm on the Saykill road was completely demolished to the pile of smoldering debris shown above. The quick response of Lancelotti House and a helping hand provided by neighbors failed to save the structure in which one horse perished and quantities of hay, grain, tools and machinery were destroyed.

Playground at No. 6 School to Open

The playground at No. 6 school on O'Neil street will be opened this Saturday, and every Saturday from now until the close of school, as a supervised play area. It was announced last night by the Department of Recreation, Miss Marie McDonough, one of the Roundout Hobby House play directors, will be placed in charge of the grounds from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. The playground will be reserved for children 11 years old and under.

Parents and children in the neighborhood of No. 6 school have complained that small children in that area have no place to play since Loughran Park is too far away for them and crossing Albany avenue is too dangerous. Permission to use the school playground for supervised play was granted to the Department of Recreation early this week by B. C. Van Ingen, superintendent of schools, and by the Board of Education.

Due to the limited space and facilities on the school grounds, it has been necessary to limit the group of children who will be allowed to use it to those 11 years old and under. Older children will have to continue using Loughran Park.

All types of play activities will be provided at this new playground. Special activities for small children will feature the program.

Five other areas in the city are open under supervision on Saturdays. These are Forsyth Park, Loughran Park, Bismarck Playground, Hasbrouck Park, and Block Park.
